

Graduate School of China, SKKU

Tenure-track Expatriate Professor Positions

About the School

Sungkyunkwan University (SKKU) is highly innovative and comprehensive private university with 600 years of history in Korea. SKKU has been ranked 17th in Asia and 118th in the world university rankings by Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) for 2015. SKKU has been striving to reach the top 50 in world university rankings by 2020 with the financial support of Samsung since 1996.

Graduate School of China was established in 2005 as a Chinese MBA course, which focus on training students to become authorities in Chinese affairs with sophisticated insights and learned abilities to solve complex business problems and difficulties.

Description

The Graduate School of China (GSC) invites applications for tenure-track positions in the following area for 2017. Applicants are expected to hold a Ph.D. degree by the date of appointment. Appointees are expected to perform high quality research/scholarly activities and lectures in English and Chinese at both graduate and undergraduate levels, knowledge of Korean language is NOT required.

Members of GSC faculty will meet with candidates at the 2016 Global Marketing Conference held in Hong Kong.

Recruitment Field: Chinese Studies in Management (Seoul Campus)

- Position Type: Assistant, Associate or Full Professor (Non-Korean)
- Majors/Specialties: China marketing, Digital marketing, Marketing channels, Big data marketing.

Required Qualifications

Candidates must hold a doctorate in a relevant discipline at the time of application or are expected to earn a doctorate by the anticipated date in 2017. Candidates should not have any reason for disqualification under the private school law. Only non-Koreans can apply for these positions.

Salary

Annual salary depends on previous educational background and work experience (Example: Starting from USD 60,000 if you have a PhD)

Extra Compensation

Research fund USD 12,500/year (up to 4 years max), research incentives USD 25,000 for “S-list” and USD 8,500 for “A1-list” in academic journal (Occurs when professor is the main author of report).

Fringe Benefits

Housing subsidies USD 20,000/year (up to 6 years max), airfare + moving expenses USD 6,800 (once at the beginning), pension + health insurance (there is a faculty sharing portion by law), paid vacation (summer/winter, which means a 12-month contract, not 9-month).

Teaching Load

Professors are expected to teach 9~15 credits per year, depending on their research performance.

Application

- Interested applicants should send cover letter, curriculum vitae, 3 letters of reference, current research performance via E-mail (see the e-mails below).
- The due date for an application dossier is July 19, 2016.

Expected Interview Dates

July 22~23, 2016 at Conrad Hotel, HK

Contact Information

You can contact,

The Dean of GSC : Prof. Kim Yongjune (paulyjkim@gmail.com)

The Office of GSC (skkugsc@yahoo.co.kr)

Phone: +82-2-740-1543~1544

Address: Sungkyunkwan University (SKKU) 25-2, Sungkyunkwan-ro, Jongno-gu
Seoul, Korea 110-745